Kavieng – Papua New Guinea

LISSEUNUNG ISLAND RESORT

Tour Leader - Xxxxxxx

Imagine a small, private, tropical island with a white sandy beach, tall palm trees and magnificent sunsets surrounded by some of the world's best coral reefs. This is the picturesque hideaway that is Lisseunung Island, located just a 20-minute boat ride from Kavieng, the capital of New Ireland Province.

Other than a handful of local staff, you won't see another soul, and can easily circumnavigate the island in 10 – 15 minutes. There is 24 hour electricity supply, with hot water on demand. Most rooms come with an ensuite bathroom. The main house, or "haus win", offers comfortable chairs on a sandy floor and it is here where cold drinks and delicious meals await you. Fresh seafood such as fish, crabs and lobster (crayfish) feature high on a daily-changing menu. Beer and wine are available at the resort, but feel free to bring spirits from the duty-free store as they are often unavailable in Papua New Guinea. The eco-friendly buildings are all built in the traditional style, with thatched roofs and walls made from woven bamboo, blending seamlessly in with their surroundings.

Some of the famous dive sites in the Kavieng region: Albatross Passage where you can see a vast assortment of pelagics. Drift dives, caves, WWII wrecks – most notably the Der Yang fishing boat. Macro and muck diving allows you to get up close and personal with all the amazing critters in this area.

Lisseunung Island Resort is a dedicated dive resort with its own fully equipped dive centre and dive boats offering up to 3 boat dives a day plus complimentary shore dives on the fabulous house reef. Diving in the Kavieng area has it all: pelagic fish and shark action, currents, wall and muck diving, wrecks and beautiful reefs.
